When Reverend Miranda McCurdy becomes the new parish priest at St. Gabriel-by-the-Sea, she's determined to make a difference in her small community.

But her eagerness to make the church more progressive stirs up a hornet's nest with her Thanksgiving committee who don't want to give up their long tradition of dressing like "Pilgrims and Indians," and when a young, pregnant, Honduran woman seeks sanctuary at St. Gabe's, the congregation's response is not what she'd hoped.

Before her husband's death from ALS, Miranda had been head chef at a renowned Boston restaurant. Now, juggling the demands of her congregation with her own solitude as a young widow, it's hard to know if her calling to serve the church was real. When she's faced with a vote of no confidence, followed by offer from her former employer to head up a new upscale restaurant in Seattle, she has an easy way out, but can she walk away? A lost dog and a handsome stranger only complicates matters. Filled with sweet humor and lots of heart, Widow's Walk is an uplifting read.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Reverend Jane Willan is a pastor who writes murder mysteries. The author of the Sister Agatha and Father Selwyn Mystery series, she believes that the world of church, with its ecclesiology, liturgy, and church drama, makes for twisty plots and quirky characters. Jane is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ (UCC) and was the first to fill the pulpit in a historic New England church once occupied by Puritans. She lives in Hartford, Connecticut with her husband, their two rescue dogs Moses and Ollie, and a rescue cat named Winifred.
